

Dear Friends,

In this season of giving, all of us at Cape Cod Theater Company / Harwich Junior Theater want you to know how grateful we are for you.

This year tested us like none before and it was you - our community, our volunteers, and our donors, who kept us going.

We are proud of how we responded as a theatre for all generations; providing virtual programming, safe, socially distanced classes, and the wonderful production of Everyman. Your generosity made all this possible.

With appreciation and gratitude,
Nina Schuessler
