Welcome and thank you for being here.

As Cape Cod's premiere family theater, we are committed to presenting plays and musicals for a multigenerational audience. It is our vision to foster a more diverse, more inclusive environment here at the CCTC/HJT— to expand our circle ever wider, and to include programming for the neurodivergent and disabled communities. I believe our programming and classes have begun to reflect that vision.

We opened our 72nd season with a beautiful production of Peter and the Starcatcher, followed by Gypsy and Silver Threads: A Linda Rondstadt tribute. Now we head into our summer season, which consists of The Lightning Thief: The Percy Jackson Musical, Finding Nemo, Dragons Love Tacos, Arkansasaw Bear, and Macbeth. To close out our season, we will present Young Frankenstein and Elf.

The CCTC/HJT is thrilled to welcome Emily Murray as our new Director of Education and outreach. She is stepping into this role after being a teacher, student, and performer here since 1986. Her expertise, kindness, and empathy, combined with her history at the theater, make her the perfect person for this position.

We are committed to creating quality theatre, making connections, preserving our legacy, and continuing our push to a strong future. With your support, we can continue to grow for our community and bring quality entertainment and education to your family. Please consider becoming a supporter/member of the HJT. Your donations make a difference and allow us to continue educating our community and programming.

Ever thrilled to share the magic of the CCTC/HJT with you.

CAPE COD HARWICH JUNIOR THEATRE COMPANY

A Theatre that spans the generations... Founder Betty Bobp

From our early beginnings in 1951 at the historic Exchange Hall in Harwich Center to our current incarnation as a nationally recognized, year-round playhouse for theater and education, Cape Cod Theatre Company/Harwich Junior Theatre has always been a place where life-long friendships and memories are made.

Founder Betty Bobp knew that when generations worked together, the potential for creativity is boundless. A respected drama teacher at Wheelock College in Boston, Betty came to Harwich in 1951 with a dream. She envisioned an educational community theater; a place where children, young people, and adults could create, learn, and experience the world of theater together.

Seventy-one years later, our theatre is the manifestation of Betty's dream. From high quality productions to inspiring classes; from costume and set design, sound, and lighting design to playwriting, prop making, directing, acting and being on a crew, our theatre is a place for people of all ages to stage their dreams.

The theatre professionals who staff our productions and workshops are the pulse of our theatre. These teaching artists share their inspiration, talent and experience with students of all ages.

Many of our alumni have transformed their experience into careers in the arts – working behind the scenes in production design; and as actors in regional theatre and on Broadway, in film, and on television. Others share skills, learned here, as professionals in education, social work and business.

We are proud of our history and theatre family. We hope to count your family as part of ours, for many generations to come.

All I Ever Really Needed to Know I Learned At The HJT

Speak up, open up , tell the truth, be on time, confidence, eye contact , handshakes, friendship, respect, give and take, communicate, there are no small parts only small actors, stepping into someone else's shoes, perspective, empathy, honesty, good posture, say what you mean and mean what you say, the golden rule, reliability, responsibility, imagination, listening, reacting, articulate and enunciate, body language, teamwork, do what feels right, commitment, cooperation, flexibility, rejection, concentration, dedication, leadership, fun, laughter and love. My CCTC/HJT journey began 37 years ago as a little shy kid with my teacher Nina Schuessler. I'm honored and proud to bring what I've learned from my many teachers and mentors from the HJT, New England College, and from my Masters in Theatre at the Actors Studio Drama School back to the theatre. Many thanks to Tammy Harper for hiring me as a young college student and for all the many years of learning and collaboration.

In-house programming: Ambassadors for the Theater that spark the youngest child's imagination through dramatizing stories and poems. The JP's tour to parks, camps, and libraries for public performances.

Junior Players Touring Troop: We are finally reconnecting with our community partners!

Outreach: Over the years HJT has partnered with schools, organizations, and businesses to build programming that meet specific needs. For the 2022/23 season we worked at The Wixon school, Barnstable Innovation School, Cape Cod Tech, Monomoy Middle School, The Rocking Unicorn, and The Children's Place to name a few.

Intern and Apprentice Opportunities: Allows students a pre-professional experience in multiple areas: set and sound design, stage management, box office, production and teaching.

HJT is your Theatre! For 72 years CCTC/HJT has been a beacon for educational theater on Cape Cod and I will continue this tradition.

A message from the President of the Board

Dear Theatre-goer,

Welcome to CCTC/HJT!

It is my honor to serve as the President of the Theatre's Board of Directors; a dedicated group of individuals committed to supporting our hard working and talented staff as well as ensuring the Theatre's continued success as Cape Cod's premiere theatre for intergenerational audiences,

With the pandemic now in our rear-view mirror, we are excited about the shows we will be producing on the main stage and outdoor stage in this our 72nd season. (Yes, CCTC/HJT has been bringing live theatre to generations of young people and adults for 72 years - a monumental achievement, in my view). Many of the values that undergird the CCTC/HJT :that everyone deserves and needs to be appreciated for who they are; that it is okay to be different; that claiming our unique selves and appreciating the differences of others is what makes it possible to celebrate our humanity; and, that the stories we tell are a tribute to the human capacity to grow and change are central to the shows that have been chosen for this season. It is my hope and the goal of the creative artistic teams and casts who will bring these productions to you that you will leave the Theatre with a smile on your face, a residue of meaning in your heart and an appreciation of the transformative nature of live theatre. Kate Pazakis, our new producing artistic director, follows in the footsteps of her talented and empathetic mentor. Like so many others, Kate grew up at CCTC-HJT under Nina's tutelage and left Cape Cod to find success.

We remain committed to our mission to educate, empower and inspire people of all ages and from all backgrounds to explore and expand their creative talents and aspirations; to experience and appreciate live theatre; and, to develop and nurture a lifelong love of the performing arts. We are profoundly grateful to the individuals, businesses and organizations that support our performances as well as our education and outreach programs - CCTC/HJT wouldn't still be here all these 72 years - without you.

Sincerely,

Susan Kosoff, President
