Kate Pazakis	Mama Will Provide It's Never That Easy/I've Been Here Before	Kate Pazakis is the creator/writer/producer of The UMPO Series (17 parodies) and was the Producing Artistic Director of Rockwell Table and Stage for 6 years. She produced American Idiot on the West End. As an actor she was a guest star on SOUTH PARK. Broadway/National Tour: South Pacific; Jerry Springer: The Opera (starring Harvey Keitel); The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas (starring Jennifer Hudson) and was a staple of NYC nightlife where she sang in clubs for over a decade. Her first show at the HJT was Rags to Riches, where she played Rich Girl #1 and Trish LaRose's sister.
Adam Harrington	A Whole New World	Adam Harrington grew up spending every summer of his childhood on the Cape and his time spent at the HJT are some of the best memories of his life. Highlights include: His first lead evah as the Paupah in the 1990 award-winning Zapple production of The Prince and the Friggin Paupah ; he played Death (ya guy, I was 13 and I played Death... I mean... right??) in the Ahkansaw Bear ('91); was directed by his brotha in The Emperor's New Clothes ('93); and got to be a lion with a wicked huge mullet in Nahnia ('95). Also... was a part of B.I.L.C.E (The Best Inexperienced Light Crew Ever) for The Hobbit and Raggedy Anne and Andy. Also... JP's. I mean... J friggin P's. Adam lives in NYC and is still trying to carve out an acting career for himself. He has a son named Miles who is wicked cute and hilarious.

Sarah Lewis	A Whole New World	Sarah grew up spending summers on Cape Cod and performing at the Harwich Junior Theatre. She made her Broadway debut with Phantom of the Opera. Sarah now lives in Scotland with her husband and little girl, Emma, and still performs all over the UK.	 A portrait of Sarah Lewis, a woman with long, wavy, reddish-brown hair, wearing a blue top. Christopher Sidoli	A Bit of Earth	Christopher Sidoli made his debut at the Harwich Junior Theater in 1996 with rags to riches and since then has done many other shows there over the years as a kid and an adult. He lived in NYC for 20 years where he performed in many shows off Broadway and concerts as well as 6 years on the national tour of CATS as Bustopher Jones/Gus/Growltiger. Last summer he played Adolfo Pirelli in Sweeney Todd (opposite Tony nominee Tom Hewitt) at the Provincetown theater. He currently resides in London. Proud member of AEA.
Halcyone Hurst	It's Never That Easy/I've Been Here Before	Halcyone Hurst is eternally grateful for the invaluable lessons she learned from Nina Shuessler at The HJT/CCTC that have continued to serve her on stages in New York, Los Angeles, London and Provincetown, where she was born and raised. Most recently, Halcyone performed in Peregrine Theatre Ensemble's 2019 production of CABARET as Fraulein Schneider. It is an honor to be included in this lineup of incredible artists to support a place that has done so much for so many.	 Hurst
Seth Doane		A special appearance will be made by alum Seth Doane, CBS News Correspondent in Rome, who overcame the Covid-19 virus while living in Italy.
