

KYRA SELMAN is thrilled to be on the Cape to direct Three Little Birds at CCC/HJT. Other recent directorial credits include The Crafters Project (University of Hartford), Carrie: The Musical (Hussian College), Summer Forever (Studio School), and the staged readings of 11:11 and Carry Me at LiveReadSDA (University of Southern California).

As an actor, Kyra has performed lead and featured roles in award winning productions at theatres across the country, including being one of the first Black actresses to portray Belle in Beauty and the Beast regionally at The Hangar Theatre in Ithaca, NY. She has appeared in several independent films and numerous national commercials for brands including Apple, Facebook, PetSmart, and AT&T. Kyra received a BroadwayWorld Award nomination for her one-woman show Fierce.Vixen.Bitch. She is a frequent participant in developmental readings, workshops and concept recordings of new plays and musicals and has worked with artist such as Kristin Hanggi, Lila Neugebauer, Scott Schwartz, and Karen O of the Yeah Yeah Yeahs.

Kyra currently lives in Los Angeles where she also coaches actors privately and on set and teaches Masterclasses across the country. BFA Musical Theatre, University of Arizona. www.kyraselman.com
@kyraselman on all platforms.