

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our 70th renaissance season. I know that our beloved and visionary founder, Betty Bobb, would be so inspired by our community, our volunteers, and our donors, who kept us going through this challenging year. Thanks to you, we remain devoted to our mission of "Theatre for All."

This summer we will embark on a new and safe Outdoor Stage, sponsored by the Bilzekian Family Foundation, with additional funding from the Massachusetts Cultural Council's Universal Participation Program and The Women's Club of Chatham.

Our 70th season will include a new adaptation of Sleeping Beauty, The Boxcar Children, and A Secret Garden. We will also present Silver Threads, A tribute Concert to the Music of Linda Ronstadt and a revival of our 2019 hit production of Doubt. The Junior Players will be back with morning performances of Peter Rabbit and Me. We remain committed to bringing our family audiences "live" performances that will inspire and entertain. "The show must go on!"

Our model education program is in fine form with limited enrollments of 10 students per class. Tamara Harper, Director of Education, has assembled a full roster of classes with wonderful teaching artists.

We promise to do everything in our power to create wonderful summer memories for you and yours.

With gratitude,

Nina Schuessler
